At Sonoran Desert Institute, we are committed to our students’ success by creating unique academic programs that add value to their lives. One of the innovative ways we accomplish this is by developing significant and relevant relationships with industry leaders. These collaborative partnerships are an essential part of our mission as well as a key to the resulting academic achievement of our students.

Our partners generously offer many services and products at a discount to Sonoran Desert Institute students and graduates. As a result, these strategic associations directly benefit our students by enhancing their learning experience. And because this participation involves such well-respected industry leaders, our students gain the expertise they need to succeed in their chosen careers.

It is with great pride that Sonoran Desert Institute recognizes the following prestigious companies for their contribution to the overall success of our students. We are grateful to have them partner with us as we help our academic community build a brighter tomorrow.

This discount is for you and meant to outfit you for what you do. Please do not purchase gifts or buy gear for others. If someone admires your SDI discounts (clients, friends or family), please refer them to our website or partners.

All discounts are subject to availability and verification of student status. Please contact the SDI Partner directly for more information on their offer or discount.
